MASONIC DIRECTORY. REMOVAL OF THE REWAINS OF GEN.

The Solemnities of the Occasion. From the N. O. Crescot, Edil.)

At 3 e'cleck yesterday afternoon the remains of Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston left the St. Louis Cemetery, No. 2, in which they have hitherto reposed, and were consigned to the committee sent hither to receive them by the state of Tayer.

NOON Dispatches. Two days previously the temb in which the remains were deposited was opened by Mr. Thomas Bothick, the undertaker, by Mr. Thomas Bothick, the undertaker, to whom the funeral services were intrusted.

The body, it was now seen, had been buried in a zinc case and a mahogany coffin. The latter was found to have been greatly decayed during the past four years. But, to understand its condition it should be remembered that the body had been only buried about a month before the arrival of Gen. Butler in this

The usual religious exercises of the Episcopal church were read, commenc-ing "I am the resurrection and life," by Rev. J. W. Beckwith, of Trinity church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Leacock, of Christ

The following named gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Gen. Beauregard, Gen. Bragg, Gen. Hood, Gen. Lompstreet, Gen. Dick Taylor, Gen. S. B. Buckner, Gen. Hays, Gen. Maury, Gen. Gibson, Gen. G. W. Chilton, Gen. N. P. Luckett, Col. Geo. Dens. Col. Ashbel Smith, Col. D. W. Jones, Maj. Tom Ochiltree. Reaching the street, the body was deposited in a hearse made of black cypress, very richly mounted with silver, and which had never before been used. The silver-mounted harness (1, as also new, and with the black horses used upon the occasion, constituted an equipage which was fitting to convey the remains of a eparted hero. The crowd had now swelled to perhaps usand strong, and a tribute of pect was here paid to the memory of the great leader which has never before why frover & Baker's Eachine is Best first of the war victims from the state, and one of the most popular men that has ever lived in our midst. The mark of respect which was shown upon the present occasion was the marching in cession, and on foot, of the ladies of

In this extraordinary procession we observed many ladies of advanced years, and all, young and old, walked through streets. Such a spectacle has never bee cen in New Orleans within our observa ion. We are told that at the funeral of the wife of an illustrious general, which occurred in the midst of the war, there was a like exhibition of womanly ent, a sentiment expressing admirate for heroism and respect for every of allied to the hero; but with the exec on of that sad solemnity, which we did not witness, no such spectacle as that of terday has been seen in New Orleans thaps never before. rode, excepting the ministers who ciated, and one of the generals who had lost the use of his limbs. The rest followed, although the way was a long one idly increased, until it seemed to abs all of the passing population of the streets. At one time it must have extended in length almost a mile. It was most respectable population of the city. It certainly was the saddest we have ever seen. There was not an exclamation a shout upon the streets as it passed there was no appeal to the cinothets in that the remains of a great man we n music, colors or processional

The facbeing removed, who had once eminent commanded respect, and that no displihad been attempted, appealed mor strongly to every beholder's sympath than if the most imposing funeral rite had been prepared. It was this feeling doubtless, that prompted the ladies to walk as mourners and to show for the emory of the deceased the most fouch ing evidence of their respect ever yet essed in this city.

The procession proceeded along Cont Rampart, Canal and Chartres, to th a the Opelousas depot, which place will leave to-morrow morning. It will arrive the same night at Brashear city the next day at traiveston, and from thence will be conveyed, by way of Houston, Washington, LaGrange and
